

In partnership with our sponsors Ken Bromley Art Supplies

RAFFLE of the MONTH

The winner of the January Raffle for the DVD was Chris Parr

Reeves Hedback Sketchbook. A4 spiral bound with 80 pages. Acid-Free textured sheets for drawing and sketching. For use with pencils, pastels, & markers. Durable hardback cover worth £10.99

Blue Acorn Coloured Fineliner Pens. Designed to infuse your work with rich and expressive colours, adding depth and dimension to your creations. This set includes 12 distinct coloured pens, providing a diverse palette for your artistic expressions. The 0.4mm precise tip size is ideal for achieving delicate linework, controlled strokes, and fine writing. These pens are fuelled by water-based ink, offering a smooth and vibrant application of colour. Designed with versatility in mind, these fine liner pens are suitable for a range of tasks worth £14.99

TOTAL VALUE £25.98

Tickets ONLY £1 each available at weekly workshops and demos

Secretary's Challenge

FIRST CHALLENGE OF THE YEAR!

The February challenge is to produce a picture of this scene by Geoff Butterworth. You can choose any medium you like and Geoff will pick the winner at his demonstration on the 14th of March so entries in by Wednesday the 13th March at the latest. Usual rules apply. There is a £10 cash prize for the winner.

News from the Exhibitions

At the time of writing there were 4 sales at the Eccles Exhibition, the Asda results not so good with no sales but Cath has confirmed that there will be another opportunity to exhibit at Asda again in February. Entrants are limited to one picture each no bigger than 16ins x 16ins to be handed to Cath no later than Monday February 26

Paint Pouring

Edina is still available to demonstrate the finer points of paint pouring. If this interests you give her a call to discuss.

Edina 07971 215092

An example of Edinas work

Next Committee Meeting, Monday 19th February

