

Quiz Night at The King Bill

THE WINNING TEAM

An entertaining evening was had by all 36 members and guests who attended the annual Quiz and Potato Pie supper at the King William. Frank was busy selling raffle tickets and organising a couple of stand up bingo sessions. There were many prizes handed out on the night and quite a few surprises for those who brought a Secret Santa gift. The winners of the quiz with a total of 40 points were Paul Gerrard and his wife with Lynne frost and her husband. All in all a good night out!

Here's a heartwarming message your editor received and would like to share with you. "Some of you may know our member Aline Watson recently had a milestone birthday. It was her wish that a donation to RNIB would be appreciated rather than presents and the grand sum of £560 was raised. Aline thought it would be good to have a guided tour of the Atherton facility and at the same time drop off her donation. We are aware that many people donate substantial amounts to different good causes but I thought it was a good news story to share. This will be Aline's 6th guide dog that she has sponsored." Aline handing over her donation. The dog looks suitably unimpressed!

Eccles Exhibition

The Eccles Exhibition is well underway now and several paintings have been sold. Volunteers to be present are still required, if you can help then please contact Lesley to see what dates are needed.

Future Attractions

Demonstrators booked for 2019 include Lee Nixon and Greg Howard, details of their dates will be published in the New Year

Street Art

Although not exactly seasonal, these examples of street artwork are so amazing I just had to include them. Remember Walter Kershaw who did this kind of thing in the 70's and 80's? Well these are just some of the many that can be seen today in Glasgow which seems to be the capital of such things.
