

Christmas Parties

A good time was had by all at the workshop Christmas Parties. The highlight of the Monday group was a poetry recital by Ted Holden. Well done Ted!

WEDNESDAY GROUP

Frank Findlow sent this report of Wednesday's party. "A great afternoon was had by all that attended. There was Sam's dead good dead hard quiz, won by Geoff Corns. Also a fantastic raffle with over 30 prizes and the main feature Potato Pie and Peas went down a treat with more than a few coming back for seconds. A lot of members commented how good the food was, thanks to Carrs Pasties. Then the traditional mince pies just to top the the afternoon off. A BIG thanks to all The Elves that helped make the afternoon a success. There were too many to mention, but it was greatly appreciated."

New Year Dinner

In the December issue of In Touch members were asked to express interest in attending a New Year dinner. Approx 12 members have replied to the invitation so a Sunday lunch at the Rivington Bar and Grill will be organised during mid February. When the date is fixed a notice will be put up at Highfield confirming the arrangements.
