

Scenes from our Intimate Exhibition..

The special evening of June 26 was an event for members and friends to get together and enjoy a social event. Quite a few members attended but not as many as previous years, this could have been because the event was in June and not May, also the very warm weather has to be taken into consideration. Wine and soft drinks were provided as well as snacks and those that attended enjoyed the evening. Ling Lee won the raffle for an original Paul Titterton framed painting and second prize of a bottle of wine was won by George Hull.

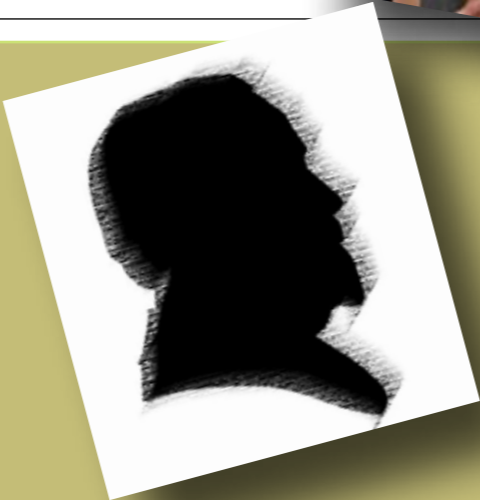

New member?

Pictured here is Les, Aline and Ricky the raccoon, who made an appearance at the Wednesday June 13th workshop to the amusement of everyone present.

Secretary's Challenge

The winner of the June challenge was Bill Usher, chosen by Stephen Coates at his demonstration. Bill used acrylics for his painting and it is shown below. Well done Bill, now to the next challenge.

The challenge is to produce a portrait in a medium of your choice of any individual famous or otherwise and the winner will be chosen by Anthony at his July demo. Please accompany your submission with a photograph of who it is based on. Usual rules apply.

The England effect?

When England played Belgium on Thursday evening June 28th only four members attended that evening's workshop, Eileen, David, Paul and Agnes. Was everyone watching the football? We are claiming this a record unless you know different!
