

Highfield Exhibition

Our annual exhibition and social evening was attended by 35 members on the 28th May.

Over 75 works of art were on display and an entertaining evening was had by everyone who attended. Thanks to all the members whose efforts made this memorable evening possible.

Secretary's Challenge

The winner of the May challenge was Roland Arthur, chosen by Anthony Ogden at his demonstration. Roland's winning entry of Sarah Ferguson is shown here. Well done Roland, now to the next challenge.

The July challenge is to re-produce this country scene using any medium of your choice. The winner will be chosen by Elise Hendry at her July 9th demonstration, so entries in by then please. Usual rules apply, the winner will receive a £10 cash prize.

Exhibition News

Eleven pictures were accepted and hung at the recent King Bill selection day and 37 pictures were accepted for Bolton Royal.

Art on the Web

Spanish artist Coco Davez was so unhappy with the face on a portrait of singer Patti Smith, she blanked it out completely. But the figure still looked like her and Davez was inspired to create a range of celebrity portraits. Can you guess who these are?
