Art on the internet

Many of us go and surf the web looking for art inspiration. I am sure a lot of us have found sites that other members may be interested in. Well why not share them. Frank Findlay is willing to collate your websites for inclusion into the newsletter. Let him know of any that may be of interest, just forward a link to ffindlow@icloud.com Here are a couple for starters.

Tuesday 24th April 11.am till 13.00

Situated on the A6 in Walkden town centre in walking distance from Walkden Station, this is an indoor event but if the weather is good there is a beautiful beer garden where we could sit and maybe do some sketching.

This social event is a draw or sketch, lunch or brunch, just have a refill coffee or just sit and chat with our members, the choice is entirely yours. Food and drink and travel arrangements is at members own expense. There will be a poster up at highfield to sign if interested so please put your name down if you wish to attend. The list will close on 18th April as seats have to be reserved in advance.

Secretary's Challenge

The winner of the March challenge, as chosen by Les Darlow, is Sam Leigh and this is his picture. Congratulations to Sam for a splendid effort.

The subject for the next challenge is this painting by Carl Jacobs and the winner will be chosen by Carl at his demo on 8th May and must be in by 7th May. To ring the changes a little this time you can execute the artwork in any medium you choose.

Artworks for Royal Bolton

Changeover at the Royal Bolton Hospital main corridor is end of April so members have until then to decide if they are interested in exhibiting. Bring your paintings to Highfield in plenty of time for selection.
