

Secretary's Challenge

This month the chosen artist is Tony Bretherton. The winner will be selected by Tony at his demonstration on the 14th of April and entries have to be in by that date. There is a £10 cash prize for the winner and usual rules apply. To clear up any confusion this picture is the subject of the challenge. Tony's artwork is a watercolour but you may use any medium of your choice.

Volunteer still needed for Social Secretary

If you feel you can fulfill this role then please volunteer as this is a well supported feature of the Art Circle. You will need to be a committee member and the committee meets for one hour a week on the third Thursday of each month at Highfield. Please contact the Secretary who's details are on your membership card.

Can you help?

A member of the public has approached the club inquiring about a painting by late member Paul Titterton shown here. He is asking if someone in Bolton Art Circle is able to produce something similar. If you are interested contact the Secretary who will arrange for you to deal directly with the gentleman.

From Rags to Riches Exhibition

Bolton Art Circle member Dr. Aruna Mene is staging a unique exhibition of uplifting textile art and vibrant, exotic fabric collages on canvas and other beautiful creations from recycled textiles and fabric scraps. Her work has adorned the covers of magazines, journals and international calendars and she was awarded a highly commended certificate in the category of 'Art, Media & Film' at the Inspire Awards 2019. She appeared in a book of 100 inspirational women in the North West and is a public speaker and raises funds for charities through her artwork.

The Exhibition runs from March 16th to March 27 10.00am - 5.00pm

Lucky Raffle Winner

It wasn't a disaster for everyone at the Sunday lunch, at least not for Evelyn who had the lucky raffle ticket for the mystery art prize of a light box for tracing, kindly donated by Ken Bromley Art Supplies. All the proceeds from the raffle went to Bolton Art Circle

Sunday Lunch

Despite best efforts Sunday Lunch at the Waggon & Horses turned out to be a very disappointing occasion for the 19 members who mainly got most of their money back. However, there was some good company and enthusiastic conversation. Apologies to all who attended.
