

Quiz Night Winners

The winning team, with 39 points, Paul & Elaine Gerrard and Ian Trotman, who had to leave early and missed his photocall!

A good evening was enjoyed by everyone, at what was a very cozy venue.

Secretary's Challenge

The winner of the October challenge was Neil Williams, chosen by Philip Westcott at his demonstration. Neil's winning entry is shown here. Well done Neil, now to the next challenge.

As there is no demo in November the next challenge will be in December, and the subject will be anything related to Christmas in any medium you choose. The winner will be chosen by members at the workshops on Monday 16th Dec and Wednesday 18th Dec. The picture with the most votes wins. Don't sign your entry, write your name on the back. The winner receives £10.00.

Congratulations to all the artists who won the Secretary's Challenge throughout the year. Just to remind you here they are.

Problem with the Projector

Members who were at Philip Westcott's demo will know that there was a problem with the video projector, which wasn't working on the night. Kevin, who operates this system, diagnosed the problem as a faulty charger. A new charger, battery and cable have been bought and should ensure no problems for next years demonstration's starting in March with Simon Eardley.

Car Park Closed

Anyone attending the evening workshop at Highfield on November 28th should be aware that the car park will not be available. It will be closed for this one night only and members should park their car on the road. We are told that a Marquee will be erected on the car park for a private function.
