Secretary's Challenge

The winner of the September challenge was June Catterall, chosen by Liz Ackerley at her demonstration. June is pictured with Liz and her winning entry. Well done June!

Liz has a webpage LIZ'S SCRIBBLES and BLOG well worth a look. you can find them here http://lizsscribbles.com/

As Judith Farnworth is the last demonstrator of the year there is no Challenge for November but the Secretary will run a challenge for a suitable seasonal picture in December. More details next month.

Trip to Barnard Castle and Bowes Museum

Blackrod Art Group are running a last coach trip of the year to Bowes Museum and Barnard Castle on Wednesday, 17th October. The Museum alone is worth the journey with world renown displays and the Famous Silver Swan automaton. Barnard Castle market town is close by and Wednesday is Market day, there are also lots of Independent shops and eateries. This excellent day out is £15.00 for the coach plus a discounted price of £7 for group admission for the museum. Contact Jean Spencer at ajspencer2@outlook.com

Money Saver

Member Paul Hilton has passed on information about a product that could save £££'s. Instead of using the popular Tracedown sheets Paul has used 'Burda Kopier Papier' which dressmakers use to trace down their patterns. The cost savings are impressive, you can buy it at Hobbycraft.
