

IN THE NEWS...

There was an excellent turnout for the Intimate Evening exhibition on Thursday 28th September. Members took the opportunity to socialise and enjoy the drinks and snacks that were available. Thanks must go to those who gave their time to set up and organise what was a very successful event.

Debra Jones Workshop

Debra will be hosting another of her popular workshops on Saturday November 4 from 11.00am to 3.00pm. There will be a notice on the board at New Bury centre to put your name down, there is always high demand for Debra so put your name down ASAP.

4 New Members

The club is delighted to welcome 4 new members as a result of visiting the art displays at the recent Bolton Art in the Precinct Festival.

LifeDrawing

In the last newsletter we ventured to see if members would be interested in a life drawing workshop and if they were to contact the Editor to express their interest. The number of members who replied was...none, so the idea has been shelved.

King Bill changeover

The next changeover will be in November, more details of the date will be in the November newsletter.

Sketching with Aline

7 members attended Turton Tower sketch day. Next meeting, weather permitting, will be Oct 19 at Moses Gate sketching waterfowl and trees. Meet at the lake car park and bring your own refreshments. Ring Aline on 0161 724 6139 or 07776 366456 to confirm.

RAFFLE of the MONTH

The winner of the September Raffle for the Bockingford watercolour block was June Catterall

This DVD will unlock the creative powers of watercolour within you. Jean Haines, a member of the Society of Women Artists, reveals her techniques on how to create beautiful, flowing and evocative watercolour paintings. Jean's secret is to make watercolours almost paint themselves. There is no advance pencil drawing just juicy, luscious flowing watercolour washes. The DVD is designed to show you techniques to create your own paintings full of light and colour by fully exploring the awesome power of watercolour. An inspirational DVD that rather than show you how to paint demonstration pieces from beginning to end reveals the techniques needed to unlock your own creativity.

VALUE £27.95

Tickets ONLY £1 each available at weekly workshops and demos

Secretary's Challenge

The demonstration season has now come to an end but the Secretary's Challenge will continue. The next challenge will be to create a Christmas scene in a medium of your choice. The winner will be chosen by popular vote of members at the Monday and Wednesday Christmas parties so entries in by Monday the 4th December at the latest. Usual rules apply. There is a £10 cash prize for the winner.

The winner of the September challenge was Paul Hilton and here's his winning entry chosen by Debra Jones at her September demo.

Well done Paul!

Next Committee Meeting, Monday 16th October
