No Show

For the first time ever, or at least in living memory, an artist failed to turn up for a Tuesday night demonstration in September. Vic Bearcroft was booked to do a pastel demo on the 12th of the month but his car broke down and he couldn't make it. All the members present were given their money back but had tea and biscuits to soothe the disappointment, plus the added bonus of the raffle! To show there are no hard feelings Vic has been re-booked to appear later next year.

Good Show

We had a good show at Rivington during the summer and 4 paintings were sold. So let's get painting and look forward to next year.

It's a small world

After the passing away of long standing member Paul Titterton, his family made sure that his remaining tram paintings went to deserving homes and quite a few were donated to the circle with a view to sell and raise funds for the Diabetes charity. One particular gentleman made enquiries of one of Paul's tram paintings he had seen previously and after some detective work he eventually acquired it. The reason he sought this particular one was that during his working life he actually worked on that tram.

(The tram shown is not necessarily the one in question)

Don't miss our annual Art Quiz and Potato Hash Supper!

This year the quiz will be held at a new venue, the Doffcocker Inn on Tuesday October 3rd at 7.30pm. There are plenty of parking spaces in the pub car park and a room is provided just for us. If you have not been to one of these quiz nights it's well worth it if only for the hash! A vegetarian option of cheese and onion pasty is available. All members and friends welcome only £6 per head. So we can order enough hash, please put your name on the list at Highfield, prizes are awarded to the quiz winners, this could be your year! Places still available so ring Jean or Frank, whose details are on your Membership Card.
